the sociological theory of practices developed in this book from the concept of the event compels us to question how practices not only chain into forms of practice the approach also allows us to see how these practices give rise to practice formations that manifest as enduring zones of intensity within society this very problem is at the center of the considerations pursued here and is unfolded through an analysis of pop music as a formation of practice as an exemplary case study the author chooses the love and peace festival on fehmarn from the year 1970 in doing so the book brings to life a period of pop music that has much more to do with our present than it may seem at first glance an understanding of the nature and forms of organisation particularly with reference to industrial societies is a key area in sociological analysis this book discusses and explains what concepts to employ and what analytical procedures to adopt as well as conveying a sense of the theoretical and empirical diversity involved in the study of organisations among the questions explored are why do we classify organisations in particular ways and for what purpose how can one explore the relationships pertaining to an organisation and its environment what issues are raised by the existence of many varied and often competing organisations in industrial societies seminar paper from the year 2021 in the subject sociology war and peace military grade 1 0 helmut schmidt university university of the federal armed forces hamburg course wissenschaftstheorie und methodologie sociological perspectives on education language english abstract this thesis and the question how the reality in germany is related to military education within society will be answered in this term paper with the background of the consequences of the second world war on the view of an army of the german population and the bad acceptance of the bundeswehr in the society the view of a military education is a different one compared to the u s for example unlike in the u s where military education is partially integrated into the school system in germany military education is only provided by the military itself or in small private settings the aim of this term paper is to find out what is the meaning of military education in german society in functionalist perspective education must teach people self discipline education is essential if society is to remain orderly these pedagogical findings of Émile durkheim studies haven't lost their relevance in our present time when it comes to the question of the meaning and importance of education in our society these aspects self discipline and order are especially determine in the principles that represent soldiers in the military this connection should give rise to drawing parallels between military education in a functionalist perspective and the understanding and implementation of it in german society from the functionalist perspective of durkheim the aim of education in a society is to produce ideal adults in order that to ensure the overriding goal specifically the functioning and survival of society can the values and virtues that can be imparted by a military education and that constitute and should be represented by a german soldier lead the way to the aim of an ideal adult described by durkheim this volume examines the dynamic interplay between what theoretical perceptions tell us about urban life and how ordinary people interpret and respond to the actual experience of living in cities major focuses are the primacy of social interaction for an understanding of urban life and the strategies people use to create community in environments which many theorists believe promote only alienation and social disintegration this new edition incorporates a strongly interdisciplinary perspective and includes new chapters on significant topics that have received little critical attention in the field the first text to take a critical approach to our health care systems it provides an analysis of the relationship between american social organizations institutions and the medical care system praised for its conversational tone personal examples and helpful pedagogical tools the fourth edition of explorations in classical sociological theory seeing the social world is organized around the modern ideas of progress knowledge and democracy with this historical thread woven throughout the chapters the book examines the works and intellectual contributions of major classical theorists including marx spencer durkheim weber mead simmel martineau gilman douglass du bois parsons and the frankfurt school kenneth allan and new co author sarah daynes focus on the specific views of each theorist rather than schools of thought and highlight modernity and postmodernity to help contemporary readers understand how classical sociological theory applies to their lives
